Fr. Charles Hall, Pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Church in Holland, offered the following invocation:

“Blessed are You God of creation and source of life and all that is good and beautiful within it.

And we thank You for the great gift and responsibility of sharing with us the power to make decisions that will shape and guide the lives that belong ultimately to You.

We particularly ask Your guidance for those who will struggle and deliberate here.

Help each of them to speak clearly and with courage that piece of Your Truth to which their eyes have been opened and to which they need to open the eyes of others.

But help each of them, as well, to listen attentively and with humility to that piece of Your Truth to which their eyes need to be opened by others.

Help each of them to breathe in deeply of Your Love which is both gentle and fierce and never self-serving before it has served the needs of others.

Don't let their trust be naïve, but don't let a healthy skepticism be poisoned by the cynical.

Help them to serve the ideals that led them to run for office without being dismissive of the vision and values of others.

We boldly ask all of this with humility and confidence that You even more than we want what is best for all people that do dwell within these pleasant peninsulas, and that if we can do no more at this moment than to sincerely share this prayer, then we have taken the first step in together serving Your purposes.

And so we ask, God help them. God help us.

Amen.”

Rep. Lyons moved that Reps. Bolger and MacMaster be excused from today's session.
The motion prevailed.

Rep. Rutledge moved that Reps. Hovey-Wright, Stallworth and Nathan be excused from today's session.
The motion prevailed.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. Darany, Barnett, Brown, Howrylak, Lipton, Potvin and Slavens offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 217.

A resolution to declare September 17, 2013, as Constitution and Citizenship Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On September 17, 1787, the U.S. Constitution was formalized and signed by 39 delegates in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to create a more perfect union; and

Whereas, The U.S. Constitution was ratified by all of the 13 original colonies in 1788, and the first three words of the Constitution “We the People” ensure that the main mission of the Constitution is to serve the citizens of the United States and respects the citizens as the sole source of all governmental power; and

Whereas, The Constitution is often recognized as the most significant and important document in history for establishing freedom and justice through democracy and the influence of the U.S. Constitution goes far beyond the U.S. borders as many nations have used the U.S. Constitution as a model for their own form of government; and

Whereas, The Framers of the Constitution had the brilliance and foresight to establish separate and balanced governmental powers to safeguard the interests of majority rule and minority rights of liberty and equality. It also provides a framework and structure for the interaction of the federal and state government while protecting individual rights that is unparalleled worldwide; and

Whereas, On February 29, 1952, President Harry S. Truman signed into law a bill designating every September 17th as Citizenship Day and in 1956 Congress established Constitution Week which begins on September 17 of each year to encourage all residents to learn more about the U.S. Constitution; and

Whereas, In 2004, the U.S. Congress declared September 17 as Constitution and Citizenship Day. Later that same year, the U.S. Department of Education began efforts to provide various resources on Constitution Day and was designated as the federal department responsible for implementing Constitution Day guidelines and educational program on the U.S. Constitution on September 17 each year; and

Whereas, The U.S. has a long brimming history of welcoming immigrants from all over the world to become naturalized citizens. In 2012, there were 763,681 individuals who, through hard work, became naturalized citizens of the U.S.; and

Whereas, Constitution and Citizenship Day recognizes that becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen is a tremendous achievement for any individual who attained it and every person in the U.S. should celebrate the duties of the Constitution and the freedom it provides; and

Whereas, Officially recognizing the signing of the Constitution helps protect the values and rights the Constitution declares and keeps those values and rights in the hearts and minds of United States citizens; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare September 17, 2013, as Constitution and Citizenship Day in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

Rep. Darany moved to substitute (H-1) the resolution as follows:

Substitute for House Resolution No. 217.

A resolution to declare September 17, 2013, as Constitution and Citizenship Day in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, On September 17, 1787, the U.S. Constitution was formalized and signed by 39 delegates in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to create a more perfect union; and
